

MAKE IT WORK: TRACKING STUDENT LOCATION

Lisa Siefker, State Authorization Program Manager

Office of Distance Education and eLearning

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

- Public
- Land grant
- Decentralized
- Total enrollment: 66,444
- 2,520 online students
- 5 regional Ohio campuses
- 3 international gateway campuses
- 15 degree-granting colleges
- 21 online programs
- SARA institution

STATE AUTHORIZATION TEAM

- Two full time staff
- Office of Distance Education and eLearning
- Web and design
- Video services
- Communications

 STUDENT LOCATION

WHERE ARE YOUR STUDENTS?

- State laws
- Federal Regulations
- Professional Licensure Board regulations
- SARA Rule of 10
- SARA Reporting

 STUDENT LOCATION

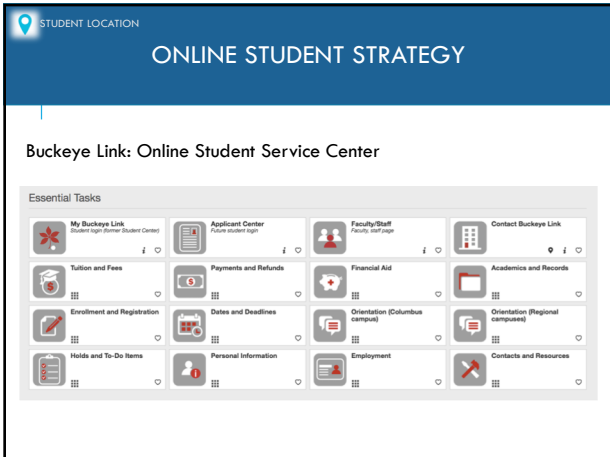

CHALLENGE

- Online and on-ground out-of-state students
- Multiple existing systems and processes
- Stakeholder engagement
- Data quality (inconsistent coding)

 STUDENT LOCATION

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

- Registrar
- Institutional Research & Planning
- Colleges and units
- Internship Coordinators

STUDENT LOCATION

SPLASH PAGE

- Appears when registering for Distance Learning (DL) course
- Students already updating contact information
- May not register for DL course without verifying "physical address"
- DL programs "authorized" or "not authorized" in SIS for each state
- May not award financial aid for "not authorized" program

STUDENT LOCATION

SPLASH PAGE

If you are currently enrolled in an online program offered by The Ohio State University, state and federal regulations require the university to verify your physical address each semester. Your physical address is the location where you will be while completing your online coursework. This information is required for enrollment.

 STUDENT LOCATION

ON-GROUND STUDENT STRATEGY

- Office of Institutional Research & Planning
- Identify courses with on-ground field experience
- Pull SIS data
- Data reviewed - department level

 STUDENT LOCATION

STUDENT TRACKING STRATEGY

- Comprehensive
- Minimal student & staff effort
- Works with existing processes
- Location updated each semester
