Salt Lake City, Utah | September 25-26

Day 2 Program

Tuesday, September 26
8:00 am – Noon	Registration Open
8:00 – 9:00 am	Breakfast
9:00 – 10:15 am	Just Between You and SPE – Regulators and State Portal Entities Working Together            Moderator: John Ware – Executive Director, Ohio State Board of Career Colleges &amp; Schools            Jennifer Armour – Associate Director, Academic Affairs, Kansas Board of Regents            Lanna Dueck – Executive Director, Arizona SARA Council            Cam Maeyaert – Director of Private Postsecondary Institutions, Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board            Terrence Scarborough – Director of SARA North Carolina, NCSEAA The role of the SARA Portal Entity (SPE) is clearly defined – the designated entity that performs the SARA work of the state, overseeing the implementation of SARA within their state, reviewing applications from institutions within their state that wish to participate in SARA, and for ensuring that institutions comply with the policies and standards of SARA – however, the arrangement of the SPE/regulator relationship can vary greatly state to state. This panel discussion will provide an overview of these different arrangements, how regulators and SPEs can most effectively work together, and how to divide the work when the regulator is the SPE.
10:15 – 10:30 am	Networking Break
10:30 – 11:45	Listserv Live, Part 2
11:45– 12:15 pm	Workshop Synthesis and Closing Remarks
